

SECOND TIMOTHY

THE LAST WORDS
OF THE APOSTLE PAUL

Letters are intended to be read in one sitting. This is transparently how Paul expected his letters to be heard (Col. 4:16; 1 Thess. 5:27). Preaching through these books section-by-section is helpful to explore the rich details but the overall impact may be lost if we do not occasionally let people hear them in their entirety.

You have the opportunity to invite The Backyard Bard to present the epistles as they were meant to be heard.

Robert Turnbull's presentation of 2 Timothy is the first Epistle in our repertoire. He debuted this presentation at the 2010 National Training Event for 1500 university students before D. A. Carson's exposition of the first chapter. By all accounts, it was a deeply moving experience which greatly helped the hearers grasp the message of the book even before the sermon series began.

This performance can be viewed on our website:

www.theBackyardBard.com/Timothy

The presentation costs $220 to host and takes less than twenty minutes. Robert also has a brief talk that can accompany the storytelling which makes it an excellent choice for the sermon slot for just about any occasion. It is perfect as an introduction to a sermon series on the book or as a conclusion to a study on the life of Paul or in any context where Paul's stirring words must be heard again.

Contact us today to discuss how this presentation can best be brought to your community.

Rob Turnbull
0422 544 511
rob@theBackyardBard.com

Photos: David Johnstone

Twitter Responses

Just heard all of 2 Timothy recited with passion and expression - awesome! #NTE10
mattbowers1

coolest bible "reading" ever #nte10
OFTHEENDLESS

Rob Turnbull aka #theBackyardBard just recited all of 2 Timothy at #NTE10 Love biblical storytelling!
DianeCodyLovell

Second Timothy will also feature in a 2011 Backyard Bard production consisting of four of Paul's Epistles. Ask today for more information.