

CHRISTMAS

In God's providence, each year Australians have holidays dedicated to remembering the stories of Jesus' birth, death and resurrection. At The Backyard Bard, Melbourne's celebrated Biblical Storytelling theatre company, we are passionately dedicated to taking these original stories to a world that is increasingly unfamiliar with them.

We invite you to host a Backyard Bard storytelling this Christmas that your community may once again be impacted by the freshness and clarity of these powerful original stories.

You have two options to choose from:

Christmas according to Matthew

This storytelling begins from Isaiah 9:1-7 which is a fascinating promise that the Messiah will come to bring in a Kingdom of peace. Then there will be a storytelling from Matthew 1:18 – 2:23. It is fun, easy to follow and great for all ages. Under a quarter of an hour, it is fantastic for a carols service, school chapel, lunch function or any normal church service. It costs $150 to host.

Christmas according to Luke

This covers the first two chapters of Luke's Gospel. It is rich in beautiful details and goes for about 20 minutes. It is great for the feature in a main church Christmas event. It costs $200 to host.

Both stories will be told with passion, enthusiasm and the Backyard Bard's trademark Scottish angels. We can give a short Christmas talk after the storytelling - contact us for more information.
